

Higher Education Administration Online Master's Program

Department of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies
College of Education, Health, and Human Sciences

Students may apply to the Higher Education Administration Online Master's (HEAMS) program in the Fall and Summer terms. Coursework can be completed in 12-15 months and is delivered online. Summer Application deadline: March 31st; Fall Application deadline: June 15th

Our Higher Education Administration Online Master's program offers advanced graduate study for individuals who aspire to work in higher education settings including post-secondary institutions, policy and research centers, and government agencies. In addition, Professionals currently working in higher education settings will also enhance their leadership knowledge and skills for service in current and future positions.

HOW TO APPLY

Applying for admission into the Higher Education Administration Online Master's program is a one-step process through the UT Office of Graduate and International Admissions. Visit Graduate Admissions to get started.

REQUIREMENTS & QUALIFICATIONS

- Application Fee: a required $60 nonrefundable application fee

 - Current Resume

 - Letter of Introduction
 - Identify your career goals related to work in a higher education setting
 - Identify ways you believe this degree can assist you in reaching your goals
 - Describe the strengths you possess for completing a graduate degree online
 - Describe the challenges you anticipate for completing a graduate degree online

 - GPA: undergraduate GPA of 2.75 or higher | graduate GPA of 3.0 or higher

 - Three (3) Letters of Recommendation: indicate the email addresses for your references through the graduate school application and the recommenders will then be sent a link to submit their letters of recommendation electronically

 - Unofficial Transcripts*: submit an unofficial electronic copy of your transcripts from each college or university you have attended in the graduate school application
- *Those candidates admitted to the incoming cohort will be required to submit official transcripts to Graduate School.
-
- NO GRE Requirement

PROGRAM CONTACT

Dr Pam Angelle | Program Coordinator| pangelle@utk.edu